

Global Archives Online

Official launch

30 November 2023, 17:30 (CET)

Room Lammhult, F-building, Linnaeus University, Växjö, and via Zoom

Global Archives Online is a free-to-use directory of open digital collections of sources in global and colonial history. Aimed at students and researchers, it provides information and links to hundreds of digital collections from the 15th to the 21st century.

Welcome to the official launch of Global Archives Online, featuring:

- An introduction to the background and purpose of Global Archives Online (Stefan Amirell, Linnaeus University)
- A demonstration of how to use the directory (Birgit Tremml-Werner, Stockholm University)
- Information about how you can contribute to the development of the directory (Simon Ottosson, Linnaeus University and Stefan Amirell)

A reception will be held in room Matisse directly after the launch (onsite only).

To participate via Zoom, send an e-mail stating your name and affiliation to concurrences@lnu.se by 29 November. Participation via Zoom is only possible for pre-registered participants.
