The Association for Peer Learning and Support, and the European Centre for SI-PASS, are delighted to invite you to attend this in-person International Forum for Peer Learning and Support.

The event will be hosted by TU Dublin School of Tourism & Hospitality Management at their Grangegorman City Campus in Dublin on the 25th of March 2024.

By attending this 2024 Forum event, you can join like-minded practitioners and students for stimulating sessions, debates and discussions about many aspects of peer learning and peer support.
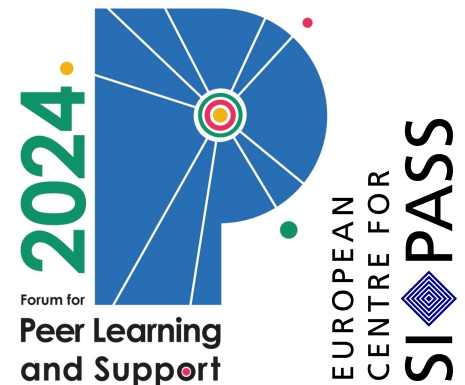

Please use the registration form to sign up, and consider submitting a proposal to present a session on an aspect of your peer practice or run a live workshop which will enables delegates to develop particular skills or insights. More details about the presentation formats are available in the call for proposals form.
